

Martí Guixé (Barcelona 1964)

Formed in Barcelona and Milan as an interior and industrial designer. In 1994, while living in Berlin, he formulated a new way to understand the culture of products. Guixé started to exhibit his work in 1997. His work is characterized by the search for new product systems, the introduction of design in food ambits and presentation through performances. His non-conventional gaze provides brilliant and simple ideas of a curious seriousness. He is based in Barcelona and Berlin and works as a Designer for world-wide companies.

Recent publications: Martí Guixé, Food Designing, Corraini Edizioni, 2010 (ISBN 978-88-7570-249-6), Martí Guixé Cook Book, Imschoot Publishers (ISBN 9077362045) and Don't buy it if you don't need it. All Martí Guixé's Camper Commodityscapes. (ISBN 13 84 609 9135 0). Martí Guixé, Open-End Stichting Kunstboek, (ISBN 978-90-5856-284-5).

Exhibitions at MoMA (New York), MuDAC (Lausanne), MACBA (Barcelona) and Centre Pompidou (Paris).

He has been awarded among others with the Ciutat de Barcelona Prize, 1999 and National Design Prize of the Generalitat de Catalunya 2007.