

The Ethics of Economic Responsibility

Campus Bozen-Bolzano City Center
21 – 22 November 2024 | Hybrid Event
Room D1.02 (21 November)
Room C4.01 (22 November)

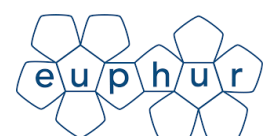

Present and discuss contributions addressing the meaning and importance of the concept of “responsibility” in the context of economic theories and economic practices.

Organised by:

Fakultät für Wirtschaftswissenschaften
Facoltà di Economia
Faculty of Economics and Management

With support of:

21 NOVEMBER, ROOM D1.02

- 18:00–20:00 Round table: Heinz Peter Hager (German/Italian)
- 18:00–20:00 Round table: Monica Devilli (Italian)
- 18:00–20:00 Round table: Thomas Longo (German/Italian)
- 18:00–20:00 Round table: Verena Rauen (German)

22 NOVEMBER, ROOM C4.01 (English)

Welcome & Introduction

- 09:00–09:45 The ethics of economic responsibility
Ralf Lüfter
- 09:45–10:30 Economic inequality and democratic backsliding. What justice says (or should say) about individual or institutional responsibilities
Luigi Caranti
- 10:30–11:00 Pause
- 11:00–11:45 Onto-epistemological reflections on the ethics of economic responsibility: Contrasting Aristotelean with Post-Cartesian (i.e. Buddhist) perspectives
Matthias Fuchs
- 11:45–12:30 TBD
Benedetta Giovanola
- 14:00–14:45 Hybrid systemic responsibility: a core concept for whistleblower protection
Verena Rauen
- 14:45–15:30 Nietzsche's 'calculating animal as such': tracing responsibility to the economic constitution of humanity
Sören Schuster
- 15:30–16:00 Pause
- 16:00–16:45 How to introduce critical and ethical thinking in the education of future economists: a teaching experience
Carlos Hoevel
- 16:45–17:30 Beyond the is and ought – approaching ethics through phenomenological insights
Florian Krause